Fine Program Given by Varden Singers

Draped flags of three Scandinavian countries and Canada, made an effective background for the Varden Singers, who, under the direction of Peter Lien, charmed an appreciative audience of some 150 members and friends of the King Edward School Parent-Teachers' Association on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Lien, who was introduced by the President, Mrs. R. E. Mortimer, spoke briefly, explaining that the group had been singing together for twenty years. Throughout the program his explanations and English translations added much to the enjoyment of the packed audience.

The group sang mostly in Norwegian and entirely unaccompanied. The rich organ-like tones of "Solnedgang" (Meditation at Sunset) bespoke careful training and genuine pleasure in the music. The program was full of variety and depth of feeling, ranging from the sprightly folk song, "Per Spelman" (Per the Fiddler), and "Sangermarsch" (The Choristers' March) to the exquisite lullaby "Den Fyrste Song" (The First Song). Sung in English, "Dear Land of Home," (from "Finlandia") always a favorite, was well received. The program began with the majestic "Fedrelads Salme" Hymn to the Fatherland and ended with the Norwegian National Anthem, "J. V. Elsker." Spontaneous and prolonged applause greeted the conclusion of the program as the audience expressed its appreciation of a rare musical treat.

A novel touch was added, when, later in the evening, the Varden Singers were able to hear their own program played back on a recording made during the performance by Joe Goscoe. A record will be cut from this and presented to the Varden Singers by the King Edward School P.T.A. as a memento of the occasion.

During the brief business session which preceded the program, Membership Convenor, Mrs. W. W. Bowes, reported 165 members. Reports were received from Mrs. S. Vitch, treasurer, and Joe Goscoe, council representative. Principal R. G. Moor, outlined coming school events. Mrs. H. M. Lindseth was Secretary. Mrs. J. Bowman accompanied the singing of "O Canada," and "God Save the King."

Mrs. B. Roald, hospitality convenor, had transformed the school lunchroom into a veritable banquet hall where delicious Norwegian refreshments were served. The tables were covered with beautiful embroidered tea cloths and centered with a dainty figurine holding the Norwegian flag, flanked with cut flowers and dainty nosegays. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mrs. Roald and the ladies responsible for the refreshments. These included Mrs. J. Johnson, Mrs. H. Helland, Mrs. H. Knutson, Mrs. Vern Fossum, Mrs. H. Grenstrand, Mrs. B. Pederson, Mrs. D. Morrison, Mrs. J. Morrison, Mrs. N. Jensen, Mrs. R. Jensen, and Mrs. J. Selvig.

BIRTHDAY OF NORWAY LODGE

Nineteen years ago a group of Norwegian citizens of Prince Rupert formed their Sons of Norway Lodge. As the years passed, membership grew until at present it stands at over 160. Wednesday night, Norwegian laughter and song rang in the Sons of Norway hall as the organization held a banquet and dance in celebration of its anniversary.

Pete Peterson acted as master of ceremonies and introduced Rudolph Olsen who addressed the gathering. The anniversary cake was cut by John Fredheim.

Musical entertainment following the banquet was supplied by Mike Colussi, who rendered "The First Song." Anton Dybhaugen and Bert Cameron played violin solos. Peter Lien accompanied the violin soloists on the piano.

Master of ceremonies for the dance was Nels Gundersen.

CANON PROCKTER DISCUSSES ART

Rev. Basil S. Prockter, president of the Booth Parent Teachers' Association, delivered an address pertaining to art appreciation to members of the association at their meeting Wednesday. Canon Prockter distributed among the group reproductions of the modern and old school of art and explained their differences. A discussion followed his speech.

Mrs. C. Strand acted as convener with the following assisting: Mrs. F. Schroder, Mrs. J. Johnson, Mrs. K. Slatta, Mrs. A. Lund, Mrs. Jack Ritchie, Miss Rose Bentsen, Miss Astrid Pedersen, Miss Ellen Waseng, Harold Helland, Alfred Henriksen, Nels Waseng and R. Johansen. Business of preparing for the banquet and dance was discussed by the organization at their meeting Tuesday night. In addition, 12 candidates were initiated into the organization.
